"In View* hosted by Larry King" documentary featuring Roundbank will air on the Discovery Channel

Larry Thompson, President/CEO of Roundbank announced the "In View hosted by Larry King" documentary that features Roundbank will air on the Discovery Channel on Monday, June 17th at 6:00am under their Profile Series show.

In View hosted by Larry King is a series of half-hour documentary style programs which are broadcast on television to a national audience. The program features the latest innovations and solutions which is hosted by internationally known icon, Larry King. The series is dedicated to finding stories that showcase the brightest and the best. In View's primary goal is to better educate their viewers on issues which impact them on a daily basis.

Roundbank will be featured in the series titled "The positive aspects of community banking". The In View research department identified community banks to be interviewed as part of the television program and Roundbank was contacted and asked to represent the Upper Midwest. Roundbank's strong community presence and involvement will be emphasized as is typical of many community banks. MoneyIsland, the Roundbank Jr Board and Kasasa programs will be highlighted in the series.

Thompson states, "We are eager to tell our story and share with the entire nation what we have accomplished at Roundbank, and the importance of community banking in building strong and successful communities."

Roundbank has served communities in Minnesota for more than 131 years. Roundbank is strong, safe and secure and is focused on Positively Impacting People's Lives.

Founded in 1881, Roundbank is a family owned community bank serving businesses and residents from four locations: Waseca, Waldorf, Farmington and New Prague.
