Roundbank announces the promotion of Pam Schaper to Retail Banking Manager at Roundbank's Waseca location.

Jade Prins, Chief Sales Officer of Roundbank, announced that Pam Schaper has been promoted from Personal Banker to Retail Banking Manager at Roundbank in Waseca. As a Retail Banking Manager she will be responsible for the management of our consumer banking team in Waseca as well as continuing to serve Roundbank's customers. Pam is also the advisor of our Waseca Roundbank Jr Board, she is a graduate from Mankato Technical College with an Associates Degree in Computer Programming and She has over eight years of experience in banking, including experience in personal banking and consumer lending.

Schaper has been active in many Waseca community events and organizations including Relay for Life, Coaches vs Cancer, Waseca Lions Club, United Way, Waseca All Schools Reunion and Neighborhood Service Center. Pam was also the recipient of the Service Above Self Award and a Paul Harris Fellow.

Jade added, "I'm excited to see Pam progress in her career at Roundbank. She's made numerous contributions to the organization since joining us in 2005. Pam's commitment to providing our customers with a great experience at Roundbank is a wonderful example of our organization's purpose and values. We have a very talented banking team here in Waseca, and I look forward to them continuing to excel at satisfying our customers under Pam's leadership".

"I look forward to developing and leading a team to better serve our customers and the Waseca community, I am fortunate to be part of the Roundbank family that allows me the opportunity to grow personally and professionally and also encourages my involvement in many community and charitable projects," said Pam.

Roundbank has served communities in Minnesota for more than 132 years. Roundbank is strong, safe and secure and is focused on Positively Impacting People's Lives.

Founded in 1881, Roundbank is a family owned community bank serving businesses and residents from four locations: New Prague, Waseca, Waldorf, and Farmington.
